DURRANT IS MUDDLED.

The Accused Double Murderer Gets Mixed in His Dates.

HIS CONTRADICTORY TESTIMONY.

Admits Having Written a Letter to His Lawyers Which He Had Previously Denied Under Oath, and That He Had Asked for Graham's Notes.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12.-After a three days' or leaf. Theodore Durrant yesterday. left the witness stand. District Attorney Barnes tried resperday to draw from the defendant admissions that he was well acquainted with the use of bromo seltzer. as used in medicine. Durrant's replies indicated that he had devoted the night to a study of the compound, as he replied that he had conversed with Dr. West about it in jail last evening. He was able to give its analysis and detailed its pathological

For the first time during the trial Durrant yesterday pleaded ignorance. In reply to a question by Mr. Barnes he said he did not know what an alibi was until after his trial began. While testifying the prisoner became hadly confused at times. and when questioned regarding his experi mee at Cooper Medical college became so mixed in his dates that he had to refer to a sard that he carri d in his pocket to set him-elf right. He became noticeably confused and rather tests in his replies when examined in regard to the interview that he had with Gilbert F. Graham, a fellow student, at the city prison, when the prosecution claim- Durrant asked Graham to turnish him with a copy of the notes of Dr. Chenev's lecture, remarking: "If I had those notes I would beable to prove an alibi."

Durrant, in his dogged way, denied absolutely that he made such a declaration. and tried to explain by testifying that Graham came to him with proffers of assistance, going so far as to inquire anxiously if Durrant had the notes to Dr.

Chency's lecture. Durrant finally admitted that he asked him to furnish the notes, but he testified that he made the request at the advice of his attorneys, who instructed him to get the notes from students of his class and compare them with his own.

District Attorney Barnes forced Durrant to admit that he had written a statement of his case and enclosed it in an envelope to his attorneys with the instructions to Copen it if he was convicted and to return it if he was not convicted.'

Durrant was asked if he did not recently show an envelope bearing such an inscription to Miss Carrie Cunningham, a local newspaper reporter. Durrant replied emphatically that he had not. He also denied that he had told Miss Cunningham that he heard suspicious noises in the belfry of Emanuel church on the afternoon that Blanch Lamont was murdered.

Several specimens of Durrant's handwriting were introduced in evidence for the purpose of comparing them with the writing on the wrapper in which the rings of Blanche Lamont were mailed to her aunt, Mrs. Noble. The district attorney closed his crossexamination of the witness by trying to show that when he was at the ferries. ostensibly to search for Blanche Lamont, he was in reality looking for Minnie Williams, who came over from Oakland that afternoon and was found murdered in the church the next day. The defense fought vigorously against the admission of anything bearing on the case of Minnie Williams, and after a long argument Judge

Murphy sustained the objections. After Durrant was excused, Charles T. Lenahan, who was said to have been raistaken for Durrant by Pawnbroker Oppenheim, was recalled to the stand for further examination. Little progress had been made, however, when court adjourned until Tuesday next.

Benefits of the Nicaragua Canal.

LONDON, Oct. 12 .- A. C. Colouboun addressed the Liverpool chamber of commerce on the position and prospects of the Nicarugus canal. In the course of his remarks he said that he regarded it as indisputably the best of the interoceanic canal projects, and he estimated that by about 1905, assuming that the canal should be commenced in 1896, 7,900,000 tons of goods would pass through. This would bring Japan, China and Australia nearer to the Atlantic cities of the United States than they now are to England. The benefit of the canal to America would be infinitely more than it would be to Europe.

Reirs to a Monster Estate.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 12, - Charles Dougherty, a resident of Westville, a small village about six miles from here, and Mrs. Margaret Ann Bush, of Mont Clair, have just become heirs to a large sum of money by the death of John Dougherty in England in May last. There are a number of other heirs to the property in various parts of the country, but there will be no litiga-

GUAYAMAS, Mexico, Oct. 12.-Advices slowly reaching this port from Pacific ports of Mexico and ports on the west side of the gulf of California, show that the hurricane which swept northward during four days-Sept. 30, Oct. 1 and 3-caused great damage to property and shipping. and that a number of lives were lost. The The hurricane was accompanied by deluges of water, which completed the ruin the wind had wrought. The Altomy river overflowed its banks and destroyed sugar plantation and sugar mills thirty miles away from the channel of the stream. The damage to the sugar interests of the states of Sinaloa and Sonora is estimated at several million dollars.

Burglars Besten by a Woman. SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12.-The telegraph office of the Southern Pacific road at Baden was entered by robbers while Mrs. Lena Marshall, the night operator, was in charge. They demanded a new, which was in the safe, but the woman fired upon them with her revolver. She then telegraphed to the train dispatcher here, who sent a special car to Baden, and she was brought to this city, where her injuries were attended to.

ANOTHER SPANISH OUTRAGE.

Steamer Alene, of the Atlas Line, Fired Upon by a Ganboat.

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 12.-The mail steamer from Kingston, Jamaica, brings an account by an American citizen, who was a passenger on board the steamship Alene, of the Atlas line, from New York to Kingston, Jamaica, of the firing upon it by a Spanish gunboat, while passing the eastern end of Cuba, Sept. 25.

The American says in part: "The gunboat was a mile from the island when first seen, evidently lying in wait for vessels intending to land men and ammunition for the Cuban revolutionists. The Alene kept on her regular course, passing abreast er graboat some two miles distant. When silically south of Cape Maysi light-rouse the report of a cannon was heard, and a cloud of smoke was seen issuing from the port bow of the gunboat. Captain Seiders, thinking that it was nothing more than gun practice, kept his course After an interval of ten minutes a second puff of smoke was seen, followed by another report of the gnn. The captain then knew it could not be practice, and the Alene was at once put about and came to a full stop.

Instantly upon seeing the Alene heave to the gunboat started at half speed, heading directly for the merchantman. As she advanced she fired a third shot. This was at least ten minutes after the Alene swung around, and was apparently without the slightest reason, for Captain Seiders was prompt in observing the international regulations of the merchantman, hoisting the signal inquiring if the Spaniard wanted to communicate or come on board.

Without replying or manifesting the slightest intention of recognizing the signals, the genboat continued steaming slowly on until a little over a mile away. when, turning her bow to the starboard she made for the nearest headland, and increasing to full speed, evidently disinclined to come nearer or give any explanation of her action.

Americans Should Remain Neutral. WASHINGTON, Oct. 12,-Attorney General Harmon, within the last few weeks has received a large number of letters making inquiry as to the rights of American citizens under international law with respect to expressing their sympathy with Cuba, either materially or otherwise, in her present struggle. In replying he says: "While there is no law to prevent American citizens from speaking their sentiments on any subject, singly or together taking such action as you mention in your letter would, in my judgment, be discourteous in the highest degree to a friendly power, and tend to embarrass and obstruct the government in carrying out its determination faithfully to execute the laws and fulfill its treaty obligations."

Damaging Evidence Against Holmes. INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 12.-Interest in the H. H. Holmes case was revived here vesterday by the reappearance of Detective Geyer, of Philadelphia. It worked perfectly. The key had been found on the person of Holmes after his arrest in Philadelphia. Dr. Thompson, who lived in the house before Holmes occupied it recognized the key as the one he had himself carried for

THE WARFARE IN CUBA

Spain to Surround the Island with War Vessels.

TO KEEP OUT AID FROM ABROAD.

Now That the Rainy Season Is Over It Is Expected that stain Will Inaugurate a Vigorous Campaign Against the In-

Washington Oct. 12. - A statement cabled from Madrid to the effect that the United States government has intimated to the Spanish minister here that there is need of prompt action on the part of his government in putting down the Cuban Insurrection, caunor be confirmed at the state department. The officials when approached neither would confirm nor deny the report, though their manner would indicate disapproval of its accuracy. It is believed quite probable that representa tions may have been made to Spain of the wisdom of aggressive and active operations against the Cuban insurgents, but it is thought the United States government aid not make these suggestions.

It is apparent that the Cuban junta does not intend t urgs recognition of the insurgents as a elligerents prior to the opening of congress, and daily events point quite as strongly to a determination to force the question on the attention of congress, in the belief that the legislative channel affords the most practicable route to the accomplishment of something in behalf of Cuban independence.

It is pointed out here that the circumstances at present are different from those surrounding the last Cuban rebellion. when President Grant took his stand, in that the rebellion dragged along for nearly ten years, while the present insurrection has been in progress less than a year, or not nearly as long as our own rebellion.

Whatever may have been the inspiring cause to Spanish activity against the insurgents (whether Minister de Lome's representations or the previously formed determination of the heads of the Spanish government), it is known officially that Spain is about to open a campaign of far greater energy than any thus far taken. The wet season has prevented the movement of troops and the maintenance of an aggressive campaign, but the dry season begins about three weeks hence, and this will be the signal, it is said, for extensive movements. A cordon, consisting of a don'ble line of gunboats, will surround the islands to prevent the landing of arms or ammunition for the insurgents, and without arms from outside it is believed they soon will be helpless. The new boats about to arrive in Cuba will not be far short of twenty. Several of them were recently sent from the United States. About twelve were built in England, and are now on their way. Several more were constructed in Spain. They are very small, not much larger than a steam yacht, but are well armed and are of such light draught that they can run in the keys that surround Cuba. They will form the inner cordon around the island. Outside will be the second cordon, made up of the Conde de Vendito and other large ships which Spain has in Cuban

With the island thus cut off from without General Campos will push the fighting from within. It is expected by Spanish officials that this forward movement will change the entire aspect of the conflict from one of minor skirmishes to extensive battles. The sentiment among Spanish authorities is that a decisive forward movement is essential, and the coming campaign is relied on to meet fully the requirements of the situation.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12 .- "Charles Roussel," the Englishman who was arrested Thursday night charged with stealing fifty shares of Canadian Pacific stock from a Mrs. Gordon, in London, and who claimed that he bought the stock from Herbert Krahn, who had been intimate with Mrs. Gordon, confessed last night that he himself was Herbert Krahn. His confession was the result of a telegram from Scotland Ya d giving his description.

His story is an unusual one. According to it he was engaged in speculation in London in 1892, advertised for rooms and was received by Mrs. Gordon. He lived upon terms of intimacy with Lor until March, 18.5, and gave her £4,000 in money and stocks on the strength of her story that when her husband, who was 70 years old, died she would inherit £40,000 and would marry him. Finding 🚁 a man named Frederick Sinclair, who claimed to be an illegitimate son of Mr., Gordon's, that her story was untrue he seized by force what he could find of the stocks went to Paris and then came to the United States. ARMENIAN REFUGEES.

How They Were Finally Induced to Desert Their Churches.

THEIR UNREASONABLE DEMANDS.

Wanted Permission to Retain the Arms In Their Possession-Their Demands Refused by the Dragomans of the Foreign Embassies, Who Promised Protection.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 12.-It is now stated upon good authority that the total number of killed, wounded and missing Armenians, up to date, as a result of the recent rioting in this city, is over 700.

The dragomans of the various embassies, accompanied by the cavasses, after receiving instructions from the different envoys of the powers to assist the Turkish authorities in prevailing upon the Armenians to leave the churches in which they sought refuge after the outbreak, at first proceeded to the Armenian church of Constantinople. There the Armenian bishop and the dragoman of the British embassy exhorted the Armenians to return to their houses, assuring them they had nothing to fear from the Turks, and that the strongest assurances had been given to the representatives of the powers by the Turkish government that the lives and property of Armenians would be protected. After consultation and delay the refugees declared they would not leave the church except on the following conditions:

That amnesty be granted for political offenses; that they be permitted to retain the arms in their possession; that the prisons be opened for the inspection of representatives of the powers, and that the innocent prisoners be released. The dragomans refused to consider this proposition. In the meanwhile, however, the Armenian women and children had come out of the church, but when they noticed that the men had not followed them they returned, weeping and crying out that they would be killed if they returned to their homes alone, and saying they preferred to die in the church. The dragomans, in view of the obstinacy of the Armenians, had a conference with the Armenian patriarch, after which, and through the influence of that prelate, the evacuation of the Kumkapou cathedral commenced. As the refugees left the cathedral the priests entered their names on a special list, while the cavasses searched them. When arms were found upon the persons of the Armenians they were taken from them and deposited in the patriarchate. The evacuation of the other churches followed, the police not interfering with the work. In the Armenian church of Constantinople, it was subsequently announced, 1,200 persons had sought refuge, and 500 refugees left the Kumkapou cathe-

LONDON, Oct. 12.-Dr. Joseph Parker has written a letter to the pope in answer to the pastoral letters advocating a reunion of Christendom, in which he says: "Were this a personal matter I could hardly forgive myself for seeking to approach a presence so august and venerable. But inasmuch as you have appealed to all sections upon the questions which effect the standing of the soul before God, I have emboldened myself to bear witness to the headship of the blessed Christ, and to decline communion with any man or church that would officially or prescriptively come between me and my Saviour. No Prize Fights on Government Lands.

Washington, Oct. 12.-Secretary Smith said roday that he had no knowledge that the Corbett-Fitzsimmons prize fight managers were intending to have the fight on the government reservation at Hot Springs, Ark., but that should any attempt be made to have the fight on the reservation he would see that the law was enforced. RURAL SIGHTSEERS.

THEIR ENTERTAINING EXPERIENCES AT THE ATLANTA EXPOSITION.

They Found Confusion In the Midway and Were Forced to Solace Themselves With More Sedate Exhibits-Attractions of Atlanta-Sights and Scenes on the Grounds.

If it were Christian to laugh at the misfortunes and disappointments of our neighbors, one could have a barrel of fun with the delayed exhibitors and their somewhat too eager visitors. It was natural that most of the first comers should be rural Georgians and their fellow grangers from the adjacent states, for this is the season when they have leisure if they ever do. And it so happened that they were most eager to see the very features which were most delayed, especially the Midway plaisance. They had all heard of that. The very few of their class who had got to Chicago could tell them but little of the wonderful foreign displays and nothing at all about the still more wonderful Art hall and its 7,000 pictures and statues, but they could tell all about Cairo street and the Algerian dance, and the German village, and the ostriches and Indians and wild Dahomerans and congress of pretty women. So the ruralists rushed to the plaisance to encounter sour looks, hear strange oaths in nine languages and see confusion.

ON THE PLAISANCE.

The Mexican amphitheater they found empty and unfinished, but the concessionnaire still swears he will have a bull fight or big damages. Where they looked for graceful houris of the orient in voluptuous pose they found grimy work-men bammering and painting, and in the bazaar a negress, who looked as if she might weigh 250 pounds, sewing on the last decorations. As a spectator put it, "They went to see Fatima and found fat Amy." And so on around most of that section, which is but now really ready for visitors. Of course they swore and received as good as they gave, each party fortunately ignorant of the other's full meaning. Such phrases as "sapristi," "caraha," "sacr-r-e," "gottvertamn" and "kellur-r bismillah" flew about with reckless vigor and were pleasantly varied at intervals by a good, healthy Georgian "damn!" In the end the ruralists were all the better for it, as they put in their time looking at better things and gained impressions to last them for life. In the Government building they saw an exhibit worth crossing the continent to see. In the California building they found an array of fruits, flowers and woods which amazed even the best informed. In machinery, transportation and electricity they were equally charmed and instructed, but in the Art hall they gave but a passing glance, as a rule. It is "caviare to the general."

Ten days before the opening it was evident that the population of Atlanta was increasing. Exhibitors and visitors came in increasing numbers, fakirs and cheap Johns of all varieties set up on the vacant lots, the popular evening resorts were througed, and the principal streets were crowded like lower Broadway. A little later visitors seemed in no hurry for the exposition grounds, but looked at Atlanta and its surroundings. And they saw a great deal. Not only is this vicinity most agreeably diversified with hill and dale, park and native woodland, as Chicago is not, but historically it is as far ahead of that city in interest as Quebec is ahead of Omaha. The great crowd from the Grand Army encampment at Louisville and the dedication of Chickamauga park went chiefly to the battlefields, which are all easy of access. The longest ride, but a delightful one by the frequent excursion trains from the Union depot, is to the Peachtree creek fields. There, on July 19, 1864, the Federals shoved a division across the creek which was driven back with the loss of 150 men and two flags, and the next day Hood made his desperate attack and was badly defeated.

A very easy and breezy ride on the electric line takes one to the field of July 21, where Wheeler's cavalry and Cleburne's infantry made such a heroic stand and held back the Federals in a way that seems incredible, but at the same time McPherson gained the hill which gave his artillery command of Atlanta. The same ground and a great deal more, but all reached by the same electric line, is the field of the truly desperate battle of July 22, when the whole Confederate army assaulted the Federal intrenchments. This field is marked off with care and properly oranmented, the chief point of interest being that where McPherson fell.

Another hard fight took place July 28 with Ezra Church as the center, and fighting till Sept. 4, when the Confed- Rubens, valued at $35,000.

acs gave up the contest, and all those lelds are within a few minutes' pleasant riding of the central part of the city and in no case at greater expense than 10 cents.

Buttlefields, though of great historic interest, are but a small part of the many attractive places around Atlanta. There is, to start on, the much praised Pones de Leon spring, and if you come here be sure to pronounce it in the broadest English you can mouth, as if it were spelled Ponts d'Leeun. And so of ill other fcreign names hereabout. Frills in pronunciation are bad form here. Plain English is good enough for Atlanta. Then there are parks and groves of every size and variety. Fort Walker is kept just as the war left it, with the old cannon and ammunition wagon standing as in 1864, save that it is rather badly weathered. The old city reservoir is turned into a great lake, with steam launch, pleasure boats and a bathing beach. And the city itself is on the highest ground between the Mississippi and Atlantic of any place of its size, Denver being the only city of is: size which is higher. So October is always a deligthful month here. A short ride will take one among the wildest mountain scenery of north Georgia, and It isn't very far to Dahlonega and the center of the old goldfields which De Soto sought so long and never found. But when the original engineers surveyed this place and vicinity the timber was very thick and whisky very cheap, the result being a set of lines which make one think of Euclid in a fit of delirium tremens. The visitor from places like Indianapolis and Philadelphia will therefore find that geography here is an inexact science and must cultivate the direction sense anew.

But this is getting a long way from the exposition. Despite the many and vexations delays, every day, at almost every hour, sees some department completed and the unsightly litter removed. It was only five days before opening day that the first box of foreign exhibits was unpacked, a delay due, the foreigners said, to the failure of the government to have customs inspectors here, for such is the kindness of our paternal government that everything the foreigners bring here must be classified and entered as an import. The heathen Chinese, however, is peculiar for tricks that are dark and has played it on the government in a way that at this late day will be hard to beat. The concession granted by a little act of congress suspending the exclusion act so far as Chinese employed in this exposition were concerned failed to specify the number, so the concessionnaire shipped in 25 women and about 200 men, and on the day the main part of them arrived Atlanta was almost as much excited as if the celestial emperor himself had come. It would be worth $1 to hear my vigorous irlend Geary, author of the exclusion act, express himself concerning this trick. It was a wonderful sight when the customs inspectors got their books ready and the foreigners began to unpack. Four hundred and forty-five big boxes and packing cases in one day were discharged into the Manufactures and Liberal Arts building. Venetian glassware, Italian statuary, hand carved furniture, curios of almost endless variety and 200 sorts of Milanese specialties, 50 kinds of silk and as many varied mixtures of silk, wool and linen, and the long lines of articles classed by Mrs. Paul Potiphar as "bigotry and virtue."

On the same day several of the state and minor buildings had not an article in place, and all around the grounds the big "Trilbys" and graces, cupids and fauns, with Fortuna, Columbia, Dea Georgiæ and all the Greek goddesses in metal which were to ornament the high fronts, still lay in the dirt in most ungoddesslike attitudes. It is really wonderful that so much was done in time. Costa Rica had all her exhibits in place in less than three days after they were opened. Arkansas had nearly all her stuff so artistically packed that it went to the right place and was ready to look at as fast as unpacked. The fanciful and artistic designs wrought of the cereals and grasses of the state are much finer than any it exhibited at Chicago. All these are in her part of the Agricultural building.

In the same building are many other unique designs to represent certain sections of the south. The Scaboard Air Line railroad has a relief map exhibiting the country through which the road runs from Portsmonth, Va., here, and a miniature train traverses the fields and runs into a facsimile of the Union depot -the same that sarcastic paragraphers refer to as the "Atlanta car shed." An interesting little thing in this neighborhood is the miniature cotton gin, from which the lint is seen falling into a glass case, so the visitor can see the entire process. It seems a little edd that the finest, at any rate the most unique, booth in this building should be that of a Cincinnati distilling company, and that the designer of it is a lady of that city. Yet so it is, and though the accessories of whisky are made prominent in the finishings the general effect is extremely pretty. As to the mere amusements, those on the inside linger behind the general show, but on the outside, oh, my! In truth, they are so numerous that a man can very easily spend all his money without going inside the gates. J. B. PARKE.

ARRESTED FOR PERJURY. Secured a Contract from New York City by Alleged Fraud.

NEW YORK Oct. 12.-A scheme by which the city was defeauded, it is alleged, of nearly $20,000 was brought to light yesterday by the arrest in Chicago of Horace J. Hoffman, president of the Hoffman Office File company, of Milwaukee. The charge against him is perjury, preferred by Controller Fitch. The corporation of which Hoffman is president was one of the bid ders to furnish metallic fixtures for the new crin.inal court building. Hoffman swore that no other company or person was interested with him in the bidding.

The other bidders were the Fenton Metallic File company, of Pittsburg, and the Office Specialty company, of Philadelphia. The former's bid of $49,000 was the lowest, and was accepted. The other two bids exceeded this by about $1,000. Each made the same statement in their affidavits.

Two weeks ago an interview published in a Pittsburg newspaper with H. M. Booz, president of the Metallic File company, of Philadelphia, was sent to Comptroller Fitch. The interview made Mr. Booz say he knew that the contract for furnishing the criminal court house with metallic fixtures had been obtained by the Hoffman company through fraud. Mr. Booz repeated his charges to the comptroller, saying that he had learned from Mr. Hoffman himself that the Fenton and the Office Specialty companies entered into an agreement not to bid under $48.609 and the one that got the contract should divide up the GOVERNOR ADVISES PUGILISTS. Will He "Unhealthy" for Them to Fight in Arkansas.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 12.-Governor Clarke, who has been examining the laws closely touching the gubernational power to prevent prize fighting, last night outlined his intentions in communications addressed to the officers at Hot Springs and the principals in the proposed fight. To Corbett and Fitzsimmons the governor telegraphed:

"I am advised by press dispatches that it is your purpose to engage in a prize fight in this state. The purpose of this is to inform you that such an act is in viola tion of our law and an affront to the sentiment of state pride entertained by our people.

"It will therefore not be possible for you to accomplish any such purpose, and any attempt upon your part to do so will subject you to penalties and to treatment that I am sure will be highly distasteful to you. I do not at this time know in detail all the complications in which you may be involved by any such attempt, but I am well enough advised of the nature and extent of the power and authority with which you will find yourself confronted to say that it will prove sufficient to deter you from engaging in a prize light in Arkansas. This is enough for you to know.

"The question, so far as it relates to you. does not now call for the constructions of statutes or other rules of law. In the present state of public opinion, which at last is the force that inilia, penalties, prize fighters have no right- which those in authority are bound to respect. But there is no lack of law to make it now my duty to do all that I here indicate.

REGISTRATION.

Registrat on cays are not a week apart this year.

There are four days for registration, in pair - Fr'd cy and Saturday, Oct. 11 and 12, and Fr.day and Saturday, Oct. 18 and 19.

Friday and Saturday of this week are the first days. Personal registration is obligatory.

The great victory won by the Democrats of Indianapolie, Tuesday, has encouraged Democrats everywhere, and they are taking up the work of this fall's campaign with vigor and enthusiasm.

The rain is not altogether pleasant to go out in, but as Senator Hill said last year, "You can stand this rain a great deal better than you can the reign of the Republican party," so get yourself to the polling place in your district and registed to-night.

The excellent nominations for city and ward officers made by the Democrats of Newburgh, yesterday, cheer and encourage Democrats in all parts of the county, for they warrant the belief that an earnest and aggresive fight is to be made all along the line in Newburgh and that the Democrate of that city are determined to give a good account of themselves on election day.

Warwick Republicans cannot be expected to get up much enthusiasm over the nomina ion of O. P. Howell for Surrogate. Their candidate, George W. McEiroy, was defeated, in the fulfillment of a corrup' political bargain, after most emphatic assurances of encouragement and support had been given him by the leader who holds the destinies of Orange county Republican politics in the hollow of his hand. Warwick Republicans would have submitted gracefully to defeat in open and honorable contest, but they are not yet ready to fawn upon those who lute them on with false promises and then stab them in the back.

THE THRICE WELGOME RAIN. The Long Drought Broken by an Old Fashioned Downpour.

What bids fair to be an "old fashioned rain, a genuine earth-scaker, began about 6:30 o'clock this morning and up to 3 o'clock more rain has fallen than in the last two months. The earth is so very dry that several days' steady downpour will be necessary to replenish the sources of supply of wells and springs, but now that the drought is broken and that it has got into the way of raining again we may expect rains at short intervals, sufficient to supply all our needs.

Thrown from His Wagoo.

While Mr. W. W. Shaw was driving along the highway near Philipsburgh, yesterday, his horse became frightened at a pile of rubbish by the roadside and shied. The animal fell into the dirch and the wagon was overturned, throwing Mr. Shaw out. He struck against a stone and two front teeth were knocked out. The horse was caught before it could egain its feet and no further damage was done.

No Chance to Do "Rainy Day Work", Whatever rains we have had this season have come in the form of showers and we are told by farmers that not since April has there been rain that seriously interfered with work out of doors. As a result what ordinarily passes for "rainy day work" has been entirely neglected and as a consequence there is a great accummulation of odds and ends of jobs awaiting attention.

FORCOT TO FILE CERTIF.CATES. Prohibitionists Have to Hustle to Save

Their County Ticket-Left Without an Assembly Candidate in This Bistrict. The Prohibitionists of this county came very near not having a chance to stand up and be counted at this fall's election, and as it is will have to get along without a candidate for Member of Assembly in this Assembly District. It all came from not knowing the ins and outs of the new election law. Nominations were made Aug. 20th. and the Prohibitionists ail went home satisfied that all that remained to be done was to vote as they prayed. Yesterday afternoon, County Clerk Taggart telegraphed Mr. John Ferguson, of this city, asking him why the certificate of nominations y the Prohibitionists for county offices and Assemblyman in the Second District had not been filed, and reminding him that time would be up at midnight last night.

Mr. Ferguson hurried with the telegram to Mr. George S. Belding, who had been Secretary of the County Convention. They looked up the law and found that the nominations must be certified to by the Chairman and Secretary of the convention. The Chairman, Mr. Dwight Dutcher, is a Warwick man, and Mr. Belding took a trolley car for Goshen, told the County Clerk he would have the certificate in time, and then journeyed on to Warwick, where Mr. Dutcher's signature was secured, and at a late nour last night, Mr. Belding got back to Goshen and delivered the certificate to the County Clerk.

The Assembly District Convention, which nominated Charles E. Johnson, of Gosben, for Member of Assembly, had a separate organization, and its officers could not be reached, yes erday, so no cerufficate of nomination was filed.

Vain search in This City for a Man Who Was Too Smart for a Liberty Constable.

Capt. Grier, yesterday, received a lett-r from Constable Ira Poster, of Liberty, Sullivan couety, asking him to look out for and arrest a man, who by representing himself to be the sheriff of Delaware county, had 'bilked" Mr. Porter out of a pair of handcuffs, and who had obtained money from Mrs. Winner, wife of ex-Seriff Winner, upon similar representations. A description of the man was given and he was at once recogpized as a man who had been in town. Thursday, and who had shown the handcuffs and a badge in several hotels about town.

A diligent search by the police, however, failed to locate the man, vesterday, and it is supposed that he has made good his escape.

11The man registered in one hotel in Liberty as "Prof. Blood" and claimed to be on the track of a man who wanted in Delhi for burglary. In this city the fellow passed as "J. Me Arthur, Delhi."

A LITTLE CIRL'S WILD RIDE.

A Runaway Team Carries Her at a Mad Pace Through the Streets-Rs. eapes Without a Scratch,

About 5 o'clock, yesterday afternoon, Mr. S. S. Shorter started to drive his team of horses from his store to his home on West Main street. He stopped at Hallock's fruit store on Henry street and left his daughter in the wagon while he went into the store. The horses started for home and while the little girl held the reins she could exercise no control over the animals and they soon began to run and their speed increased until they reached Mr. Shorter's residence. where they turned in the yard.

Mrs. Shorter, seeing her daughter's danger, ran out and attempted to stop the horses, and sustained a sprained ankle in the unsuccessful

Seeing that the horses were about to run into the fence in the rear of the house she called to her daughter to jump, which she did, and escaped without as much as a scratch.

The horses tore down a panel of fence, passed into Wickham avenue and then ran towards the State Hospital. On the way they collided with a cart and freed themselves from the wagon, and ran to the State Hospital where they were caught.

One of the horses was quite badly hurt, a splinter from the wagon entering its foot.

JUMPED THE TRACK.

Two Cars Get Beyond Control on the Wickham Avenue Hill.

Two electric cars jumped the track in rounding the curve at the junction of Wickham avenue and North street, last evening. Fallen leaves have made the rails very slippery, and when brakes are set, the wheels slide along the slippery rails like runners on the snow.

Motormen were compelled to exercise the greatest care in descending the hills, this morning, in order to retain control of their care.

No one was injured and the derailed ca is vere quickly pliced back upon the track and conclaued their journey

Captured a " Wild Man,"

A vacant-eyed man with unkempt hair and beard, and clad in rags was captured Monday, near Livingston Manor, by a couple of hunters. He had a sort of camp near that village. He was sent to the county house by a Justice, whe could not see the difference between a wild man and a crazy vagrant.

Which Town shall support This Fam-

The towns of Sidney and Walton, in Delaware county, are at law, and their case will be tried at Delhi, Oct. 16th. A family named Bliss moved from Walton to Sidney, and after a time asked help from the town. The poormaster refused help, saying they belonged in Walton and had not acquired a residence in Sidney. Walton's authorities, when appea ed to, said the Blisses had lived in Sidney long enough to lose their residence in Walton and refused to do any thing. Sidney then brought an ac. Domet Flannel at 3c a yard, z tion against Walton to compel it to case Brown or Plaid Toweling care for the family.

If I had the tane to find a place And sit me down full face to face With my better self that stands no show In my daily life that rushes so, It might be then I would see my soul Was stumbling still toward the shining goal; I might be nerved by the thought sublime,
If I had the time!

E I had the time to let my heart Speak out and take in my life a part,
To look about and to stretch a leard To a co-rade quart red in no luck land; Ah, God! If I night but just sit still And hear the note of the whipton rwill,

I think that my wish with God's would

BY CHANCE.

I don't know exactly why Jack called me governor, but I suppose it was because I was some years older than he was and because, when he was a wee toddler, I had made him kites and showed him how to spin tops, and perhaps because I used to help him out of scrapes, either with his teacher or some playmate too large for him to "lick." At all events, I got the name, and it has stuck to me. What surprised me most, however, was to hear it a few weeks ago, when I supposed Jack was thousands of miles away. I was strolling leisurely down an old street in Dublin, looking about for some old landmark of the "stamping ground" of my childhood. How things had changed! Yonder where the little frame church had been was a stately stone edifice. Over the old golf links had been buin long rows of stores and houses, but there-yes, it must be-there was a house that had not been changed.

"Governor," said a voice behind me, "isn't thut the house where Alice lived?

I never should have known the speaker had it not been for the epithet. It was Jack, careworn and gray and looking 35 instead of 27.
"Jack, old boy, what brings you here?

I thought you were in America."

"I have been in New Orleans for a good many years. Helen used to like the climate, but the company's agent here has gone, and I must needs come and take care of the business until another man is appointed. Besides the president knew that I once lived here and thought it would be both a change from my surroundings and a pleasure to see the old place. But isn't that Alice's old home?" "Yes," said I, "I am quite sure of it, but you ought to know best. Wasn't she once a sweetheart of yours?" "Oh, don't speak of that! You pain me! It brings back such a flood of sad recollections even to look upon the old scenes. I don't know that you have heard, but I am a widower.'

"My poor fellow! I extend you my most heartfelt sympathies. But I didn't know you had ever married. However, we have kept such poor track of each other that I don't wonder at my igno rance. But can't you tell me something of yourself? Come, I'm your 'govern-

"Well, 'governor,' " said he, with a faint shadow of bis old smile, "I left America nine years ago. I went straight to Quebec and lived there three years. It was there I met her who became my wife. We were married just six years ago last month. Her health failed and we went south. She grew worse, gave birth to our first child and died. That was a little over two years ago, and as the child is in good hands (my sisterm-law':) I consented to come here."

"But, Jack, what made you go to America? Why didn't you stay here?" "Well, it was the same old tale of the young workingman not being fit to many his idol. As you said, Alico was my sweetheart. She said so herself, dear girl, but her brother Tom-there was the difficulty. I called on Alice very often and had asked her to be my wife, though I was but 19. She said 'Yes, but Tom wouldn't hear of it. I tried to bring him around by all manner of means, but he was resolute. He had never liked me, and he never hesitated to tell me so. In fact, he took great pleasure in rating me before as well as behind my back. "One night-I think it was Halloween -a crowd of young fellows got out on a lark, and in their sport took Tum's small donkey out of its shed, and pushing it upon the roof of a wagon house, which sleped almost to the ground, fied it there. Tom thought I was the prime mover in the trick, though I knew nothing of it, and accordingly the next night, when I called, promptly showed mo the door, with the injunction never to set feet inside it again.

"I saw Alice at times, but she seemed somewhat changed. So after I had tried all m my power to swaighten things I got angry about it, and when I was offered a position in Canada I was glad to leave. My marriage was not spite work. I loved Abee and always shall, but I knew I could be happy with. Helen and then she said she loved no.

Just then we passed the house. It was the same old place we both remembered. The same trees and bushes spread their branches about the lawn. In one corner of the yard stood a large, old fashioned backet pump and on one of the boards of the side fence was the rude, weather stained carving, "Jack Higgins and Alice Neal." Jack turned red, then white, as he looked at the names and then glanced

"Do you suppose she lives there now?" he asked. "I'm sure I don't know," I replied, at me.

"but let's ask some one." Several persons passed, but all seemed in a hurry, so we went into a store across the street and inquired. Yes, Tom-Neal and his sister lived there. Did we know them? Indeed! No, his sister was

In Our Gre t Grandtather's Time, big bulky pills wees in general use. Like the "blunderbuss" of

way. Ássist Nature little now and then, with a gentle, cleansing laxative, thereby removing offending matter from the stomach and bowels, toning up and invigorating the liver and quickening its tardy action, and you thereby remove the cause of a multitude of distressing diseases, such as headaches, indigestion, or dyspepsia, biliousness, pimples, blotches, eruptions. boils, constipation, piles, fistulas and maladies too numerous to mention.

If people would pay more attention to properly regulating the action of their bowels, they would have less frequent occasion to call for their doctor's services to subdue attacks of dangerous diseases. That, of all known agents to accomplish this purpose, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are unequated, is proven by the fact that once used, they are always in favor. Their secondary effect is to keep the bowels open and regular, not to further constipate, as is the case with other pills. Hence, their great popularity, with sufferers from habitual constipation, piles and indigestion.

A free sample of the "Pellets," (4 to 7 doses) on trial, is mailed to any address. post-paid, on receipt of name and address on postal card.

not married. Some fellow off in America jilted her, so they said.

'Well, Jack," said I, after we came out, "I'm not a matchmaker, but if, as you say, you always have had a warm affection for Alice, why don't you begin again? It isn't too late."

Jack blushed to the roots of his hair and said he should never go there after having been shown the door. I tried to coax him, but it would not do, yet all the time I could see he wished to meet his old "flame" once more.

Jack and I lived together at the same hotel and daily I spoke to him of going to call as a friend. At last the day before he was to return to New Orleans I got him down near Neal's home. We passed it six or eight times, and I began to feel foolish at promenading up and down the street. Once he stopped in front of the gate and he put forth his hand to open it, but drew back like a young schoolboy. Then I told him that I had had enough of such fooling and that when we approached again we would have to go in. We came up. I opened the gate and pushed him forward up the steps.

"Heavens, 'governor!' " he gasped, 'Ring the bell for me!'

Tom Neal came to the door and greeted us warmly.

"Jack," said he, "I owe you an apology-have owed you one for years. I found out who did that work with the donkey and I'm sorry I ever treated you as I did."

We began to chat of old times, and shortly Alice came down stairs. She was the same girl we had known, only matured. I felt sure that she had seen us before we entered, for she was dressed in her loveliest. She met Jack not quite like a sweetheart, but very tenderly.

It did me good to tell them of Jack's diffidence and what a hard time I had to get him to come. They were a little displeased that he did not come before, and when we said something about sailing Alice exclaimed:

"Sailing! What! Are you going back?" "Yes," returned Jack demurely, "I start tomorrow." Alice hummed to herself a moment, then going over to him and taking his hands in her own, said:

"Well, I don't propose that you shall go without me. I have loved you, and you me. You once asked me to be your wife, but we were separated. I know you are too bashful to ask me again, so I ask you to be my hasband."

To say that we were surprised is putting it mildly, but Jack turned to me and said. "'Governor, you are a nearthmaker, after all "--- Carcago News.

Pature of the Microscope.

As the physician's assistant and guido in diagnosis, the microscope is coming rapidly to the front. It is now the custom with some advanced physicians whenever there is a case with obscure symptoms, or where consultations are thought necessary, to draw a few drops of the patient's blood and examine it under the microscope. This almost invariably decides the condition and is, in many diseases, an infallible guide, as the blood is the great sewerage system of humanity. It takes up and carries to the lungs whatever imparities may exist. There they are consumed or exhaled. It therefore stands to reason that the blood is the index to the state of the system.

Another test adopted by all up to date doctors is the examination of the perspiration after a great degree of heat has been at .1 + 1 to the body. The sufferer is paid and a steam box, and after some moments of profuse perspiration the surface of the body is scraped with a sharp steel instrument, by means of which whatever impurities are thrown out may be taken from the pores. This, with the blood examination, is thought by some practitioners to afford all of the assistance necessary in determining the nature of the most obscure diseases. Of course, there are what may be called new diseases, and this method will enable the skilled microscopist to detect them and study their genesis and treatment.—New York Ledger.

Fare to a Star.

Besides being a great astronomer, Sir Robert Ball is a man of figures. He tells us what it would cost to reach one of the most distant stars, supposing a railway were constructed to it from London and that the low rate of 1 penny per 100 miles prevailed. If the intending passenger could present to the booking clerk the whole of the national debt of the United Kingdom-a sum exceeding £670,000,000 -he would require 5,000 huge carts to convey it in sovereigns to the ticket office. Even when the poor clerk had accomplished the lengthy task of counting the "fare," he would want another £103,000,000 before he would feel justified in issning even a third class ticket, and there could not be a return one for the money.-Scottish

"A weiding present, chi" asked the dealer. "Is your friend a clubman? "Yes, he's a member of two clubs." "Are you a married man, sir?"

"Well. I'd like to show you a clock invented by a friend of mine. It is peculiarly suitable for a married man who belongs to a club. But first you must give me your word of honor that you will never reveal the secret to any one except a married man whom you know has reached home not earlier than 2 a. m. twice a week for three con-centive works. If any woman discovers the searct of the invention, its prospects are rained."

"I am afraid it is doomed. However, I

"Well, this is the idea. When a man intends to scay out late, he presses this little spring-sc innocent looking, you see. that it will competible sharpest feminine observation. The clock at once begins to lose these. The hands more with just half their usual randity until 3 o'clock in the morning. Thus, if the spring is pressed at a pains, the hands will show 12 o'clock when the correct time is 3 a.m. After 3 o'clock the hands will move with twice their usual ranidity until the time lost has been regained and no longer. At 6 a. m., therefore, the clock will be right, and thereafter it will jog along sedately 60 minutes to the hour just as if it never had been endiced in a conspiracy to deceive a trusting wife.

"Suppose a man gets home at 4 or 59" "It will be of less service to him of course. However, we have 4 a. m. and 5 a. m. clocks constructed on similar principles, though I think the 3 a. m. clock is best suited for average requirements. My friend is striving to invent a clock which will stop running slowly and begin to regain time automatically the moment a man begins to lock for the keyhole, but at present the project is little more than an iride-cent dicam.

It is perhaps unnecessary to say that he secured my order.-Truth.

I had been doctoring constantly with Aorelief. I bought one bottle of South American Nervine, which did me more good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life. How to be Handsome,

It is a mistake to suppose that the only way to be good looking is to be born so. Good health has more to do with good looks than anything else. Such diseases as constipation, dyspepsia, liver complaints, rheumatism. nervous disorders, &c., not only shorten life, but spoil tempers and "looks." Bacon's Celery King for the nerves cures these troubles. John J. Chambers sells it and will give a sample pack-

The Groomsman in the Bridegroom's Place

From the Montgomery Standard.

A very amusing occurence happened at the Oatholic Church last Monday during the Garrigan-Carlin wedding. When the Rav. Father Meredith was ready to join the happy couple in wedlock the groomsman stepped up and took his place by the side of the bride while the groom stoot behind. The priest started the ceremony but the thought struck him suddenly that the wrong man was in the right place, and he stopped and asked "which one of you gentlemen is going to get married." The groomsman seeing the mistake at once stepped back and let the groom take his rightful place.

WATER TRAINS ON RAILROADS,

The Brought Makes Necessary Novel Means of Water supply. (From the Hon-sda'e Ci'zen)

Delaware and Hudson The Oanal Company are running water trains from Carbondale to Peckville, Archbald, Olyphant and other points along the lower Gravity line, where there is a water famine. This action was made necessary in order to keep the stationary engines, on that portion of the Gravity railroad, running. The water is carried in old Gravity boilers, which are some fifty feet in length. The supply is obtained from the Carbondale water works. The Pennsylvania railroad is also running water trains on their road in the western part of the State, to supply various towns.

"SHORE ACRES!"

James A. Herne's Great Play at the Casino, Tu-night,

"Shore Acres" may be truly classed as a great play. It seems impossible to imagine a clearer, more interesting, more impressive, and at the same time a more picturesque story than Mr. Herne bas told in this beautiful New England comedy. There is a fascinating love story, but it is the love that U cle Nathaniel has for the whole numan race that thrills the spectator, and few people can listen to the story he has to tell and not feel better and nobler for having heard it. There is no attempt at sermonizing or preaching, it is all action, and in "Shore Acrea" acts speak louder than words. Mr. Archie Boyd, engaged for the part of Nathaniel Berry, will be remembered as the hero of "The O d Homest a!" The other members of the company were seen here last season. There will be new scenery and some novel mechanical effects. The production is to be given at the Casino, this - evening.

Electric Bitters

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a time and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious tevers. No medicine will act more surly in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, Indigection Constipation, D.zz ness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c. and $1.00 per bottle at Confusion as to the choice of a blood-purifier is unnecessary. There is but one best Sareaparilla, and that is Ayer's. This important fact was recognized at the Worli's Fair, Chicago, 1993, being the only bloodpurifier admitted to be placed on exhibition.

There is one medicine that will ure imm ediatly. We rifer to De-Witt's Colic & Cholera Cure for all summer complaints No delay. No disappointment, No failure, W. D. Olney.

AS HELPLESS AS .BABES.

An Outside View of Middletown's Aldermen.

From the O ange County Farmer.

The city of Middletown's Board of Aldermen seems to be as helpless as babes when one determined man opposes. The truth of this is well illustrated in the altering of the north end of Highland avenue by Mr. Mil ler. The street was in a bad condition before-it should have been located at least 200 yards northwest of its old location; but instead of this change Mr. Miller moved it a considerable distance in another direction, fenced up the old street, and bade the city deflance.

Perhaps the reason the city takes the matter so serenely is because the farmers are so greatly incommoded by the change. This theory of the situation is made plausible by the outrageously bad condition in which the north end of North street has been kept for the past two years, augmented by the atrocious work done, lately, in "repairing" this street. Evidently, Middletown aldermen care nothing about the sort of thoroughfares farmers have to use in getting in town, so long as they get there.

Decided Against Wawayanda's Asses-

Judge Brown, in special term at Newburgh, to-day, dec'ded the certiorari proce-dings blought by James Reilly, of Springside, against the Assessors, of Wawayands, in Mr Riey's favor and ordered that the assessment of $2,000 personal property to be striken from the roll. Mr. Rielly appeared before the assessors on grievance day and asked for the removal of the assessment, but they refused to do this, because they had learned that Mr. Reilly had a mortgage against property on Cottage street, this city. Mr. Reilly then instituted the proceedings decided in his favor. John C. R. Taylor, E q, was Mr. Reilly's attorney.
